KIN APPOINTS EXPERIENCED ENGINEER AS PROJECT DEVELOPMENT MANAGER

Kin Mining NL (ASX: KIN) is pleased to announce the appointment of Gary Goh as General Manager (Project Development).

Mr Goh, who has 23 years of experience in mining and metals production, will strengthen Kin's management team as it pushes towards development of its Leonora Gold Project in WA.

Prior to joining Kin, he worked as General Manager Operations at Norton Goldfields Paddington Operations. Mr Goh has also served as Executive Director for Norton Goldfields and a Non-Executive Director of Avalon Minerals.

He has held senior management roles with Alacer Gold at its Chalice Gold Mine, Rio Tinto at Argyle Diamonds, BHP Billiton at its Cliffs Nickel Operations and Barrick Gold at its Darlot Gold Mine. Across these operations he has overseen project works, rehabilitation and commissioning of brownfields operations and management of short and long-term mine planning and production.

Mr Goh is a member of the Australasian Institute of Mining & Metallurgy (AusIMM) and holds a Western Australian First-Class Mine Managers Certificate of Competency.

Kin Managing Director Don Harper said: "Gary's skills and experience will be extremely valuable as we prepare to build a mining operation and refurbish our plant."
